Altana Federal Credit Union Privacy Policy

Altana Federal Credit Union is committed to providing you with competitive products and services that will enable you to meet your financial needs and reach your financial goals. Protecting personal information and using it in a manner consistent with your expectations is also a high priority to everyone associated with Altana Federal Credit Union.

In order to offer you quality products and services, we have entered into agreements with other companies that provide services to us to complete your transactions or additional financial products for you to consider. Under these arrangements, we may disclose the information we collect, as described below, to companies that perform marketing or other services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

To protect our members' privacy, we only work with companies that agree to maintain strong confidentiality protections and limit the use of information we provide. We do not permit these companies to sell to other third parties the information we provide them.

What "nonpublic personal information" do we collect? In order for Altana Federal Credit Union to provide financial services to you, we collect personal information about you - some of which is "nonpublic." We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on membership and loan applications or other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others;
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

What "nonpublic personal information" do we disclose? Altana Federal Credit Union is dedicated to strong relationships with other companies and financial institutions to protect your personal information. We do not sell member information to telemarketing companies. As permitted by law, we may disclose the information we collect as described above, with the following:

- Companies that provide services necessary to process transactions on your behalf, conduct the operation of our credit union, or protect the security of our financial records; such as our statement and share draft processor, data processor, check printer, and ATM and debit/credit card processor;
- Other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements to provide additional financial services, such as CUNA Mutual.
- Companies that perform marketing or other services on our behalf, such as mailing services and marketing research firms.

In order to conduct our business, we may also disclose nonpublic personal information to other non-affiliated third parties as required or permitted by law.

How does Altana Federal Credit Union protect the security of nonpublic personal information? We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who have a specific business purpose in utilizing your data. Our employees are trained in the importance of maintaining confidentiality and member privacy. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations and leading industry practices to guard your nonpublic personal information.

If you terminate your membership with Altana Federal Credit Union, we will continue to adhere to the privacy policies and practices as described in this notice.
